

Assessment Coordinator

The Position

Lewis University invites applications for an Assessment Coordinator. The Assessment Coordinator is responsible for assuring implementation of the Lewis University Assessment Plan and coordinating assessment of common, program, and co-curricular student learning outcomes.

The Assessment Coordinator will also provide group and individual consultation and training to department chairs, data coordinators, and other campus assessment stakeholders engaged in assessment. The Coordinator will organize University assessment events as well as work collaboratively with the Office of Institutional Research to administer assessments.

This is an outstanding opportunity for someone who wants to use their expertise to support the university as it shifts towards new ways of thinking. Lewis University serves a diverse student population and community. We invite applications from individuals that embody a commitment to diversity.
