

Doane University is seeking a strategic and innovative academic leader to serve as the Dean of the College of Education. The Dean is the chief academic officer and administrative leader of the College and serves as a key member of the University leadership team. The Dean will provide the leadership, management, and oversight for the identification, development and support of high-quality academic programs. This includes coordinating curriculum development, program assessment, academic standards, faculty development, and institutional research and accreditation reports.

Founded in 1872, Doane University is known for its leadership in higher education, grounded in the university's commitment to academic excellence, innovation, community and a special sense of place for everyone. The College of Education—one of Doane's flagship programs—is an innovative, vibrant, and growing program committed to a tradition of excellence. With courses offered on Doane's four campuses and online, the college fosters opportunities for collaboration between faculty, staff, students, and Nebraska school districts. The undergraduate teacher education program is located on our Crete campus and graduate teacher education programs is taught in Lincoln, Omaha, Grand Island, and online. Graduate programs are in Curriculum and Instruction (including several endorsement areas), Educational Leadership, Education Specialist, School Counseling, and a Doctorate of Education in Educational Leadership. The College of Education prides itself on providing educator preparation programs at both undergraduate and graduate levels that are student-centered, innovative, and anchored in partnerships with PK-12 schools.

Doane University actively works to create and sustain a welcoming learning community for all members to fulfill their potential, feel valued, and make meaningful contributions. Doane University is an equal opportunity employer and seeks candidates who reflect the diversity of our society. In accordance with USCIS regulations, successful applicants must be legally able to accept work in the United States. Doane is unable to sponsor applicants for work visas.

With an anticipated start date of July 2019, review of applicants will begin Nov 12 and will continue until the position is filled. For additional position details and application instructions, visit: www.doane.edu/jobs
